Request

You asked us:

"Please could you provide a copy of all personal data Transfer Risk Assessments your organisation has completed this year."

We received your request on 18 July 2023. We have handled your request under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 (the FOIA).

Our response

In order to establish whether we hold information in scope of a request, I am required to conduct reasonable searches by consulting with relevant people, teams, and systems to locate pertinent information.

I have consulted with our information management team, our legal team, our project management team, as well as conducting broad searches in our corporate document storage space. Following these searches, I have been unable to locate any transfer risk assessments completed this year. Therefore, I do not consider we hold any information in scope of your request.

Next steps

You can ask us to review our response. Please let us know in writing if you want us to carry out a review. Please do so within 40 working days.

You can read a copy of our full review procedure here.

If we perform a review but you are still dissatisfied, you can complain to the ICO as regulator of the FOIA. This complaint will be handled just like a complaint made to the ICO about any other public authority.

You can raise a complaint through our website.
